A Little Bit About The Photographer

Les Woodrum got his start in the Danville area working for local studios and photo labs back in 1975. Since then his experience has included:

- Scientific Research Photographer

- College Photography Instructor

- Portrait Studio Owner

- Photo Lab Manager

- Communications Specialist

- Photo Editor

- Corporate/Industrial Photographer

Besides his commercial experience, Les Woodrum's photos have been published in countless publications. He also exhibits his fine-art photography in numerous galleries and museums throughout the country.

Woodrum-Media has very competitive hourly rates, excellent service, quick turn-around, and the finest in artistic quality commercial photography in the Mid-west.
